Day 16	Marriott Casablanca Hotel, Casablanca

On some dates alternate hotels may be used.

Day 1: Saturday, February 28, 2026 Overnight Flight It's an adventure that spans two continents. It's culture centuries in the making. It's your tour of Spain and Morocco. You're on your way: are you ready?

Day 2: Sunday, March 1, 2026 Madrid, Spain Welcome to Madrid! Did you know that Spain's capital was a fortified enclave during the Andalusí period? Experience the city's vibe as you walk to your welcome dinner. With new friends, say "Salud!" to a new journey. (D)

Day 3: Monday, March 2, 2026 Madrid A local expert highlights Madrid's diverse and iconic spots, including Plaza Mayor. Dive deeper into the city's Mudéjar history to see how centuries of co-existence molded the city and its inhabitants. With the rest of the day on your own, you do you – Madrid-style. If you prefer to tour, an optional excursion to the fortified city of Segovia explores its medieval streets, where you can see the 14th-century Alcazar Palace. This UNESCO World Heritage Site blends Christian and Muslim influences. (B)

Day 4: Tuesday, March 3, 2026 Madrid - Córdoba - Granada ¡Zoom! Travel at alta velocidad aboard the AVE high-speed train to Córdoba. This is a city known for its harmonious blend of Christians, Muslims, and Jews, and yet it also tells a story of the religious upheavals along its history. Walk with a local expert to La Mezquita (UNESCO), an 8th-century mosque that was converted into the city's cathedral in the 16th century during the Reconquista. Then, it's off to Granada, Spain's final Moorish capital before it fell to Catholic monarchs in 1492. (B)

Day 5: Wednesday, March 4, 2026 Granada Explore the world-famous Alhambra* (UNESCO) with a local expert. Bathed in morning light, the Alhambra Palace awaits – a fantasy of arabesque gardens, fountains, and stone cut like lace. If you still have the breath, also explore the exotic water gardens of the Generalife, the royal summer residence. Take a moment to relax in the sunshine as this stone fortress overlooks Granada, a mesmerizing example of Islamic architecture. With a free afternoon, soak in the local culture however you choose. Tonight, eat as the Spanish do... because tapas are on the menu. (B, D)

Day 6: Thursday, March 5, 2026 Granada - Seville Your taste of the local culture continues today at an award-winning olive grove. Discover the rich history of olive oil production at this family-owned company as you tour the grounds and sample oils before sitting down to lunch. Next, it's on to Seville, the capital of the Andalusia region and a city famous for its flamenco scene. Later this afternoon, join in a flamenco lesson at Fundación Cristina Heeren de Arte Flamenco. In this Impact Moment, be a part of this non-profit's mission to share the art of flamenco. Then, sit back and enjoy a traditional flamenco performance. (B, L)

Day 7: Friday, March 6, 2026 Seville A local expert uncovers the city's historic Mudéjar architecture with you – as well as Seville's intriguing stories. A panoramic tour reveals iconic sites, including the Giralda Bell Tower, originally built as a minaret for the Great Mosque of Seville, and the beautiful Plaza de España. Visit the Seville Cathedral (UNESCO), the largest gothic cathedral in the world. Meander the narrow streets of Barrio Santa Cruz, the old Jewish quarter of Seville. Here, quaint courtyards, bright flowers, and whitewashed buildings create a charming backdrop. The afternoon is yours, enjoy it at your own pace! (B, D)

Day 8: Saturday, March 7, 2026 Seville - Tangier, Morocco Climb aboard the high-speed ferry to Africa because today, you'll say "adios" to Spain and "salaam alykum" to Morocco. Cross the Strait of Gibraltar (it's a short ride), and disembark in the city of Tangier, a multicultural hotspot. Tangier was once occupied by the Portuguese and the British. A local expert leads you throughout the city to share places with you like the old medina and the kasbah. Later, get to know the American Legation in Tangier; it's the only U.S. National Historic Landmark located in a foreign country, and a symbol of the diplomatic ties of these two nations, dating back to the 1800s. (B, D)

Per Person Rates*:

* All Rates are Per Person and are subject to change

IMPORTANT CONDITIONS: Your price is guaranteed once deposit is received and booking confirmed by Collette. Your price is not subject to increase after the deposit is received and booking confirmed, except for charges resulting from increases in government-imposed taxes or fees. (See registration form for consent.)

Day 9: Sunday, March 8, 2026 Tangier - Asilah - Tangier A morning at leisure means more time to explore Tangier. See why this coastal city has been inspiring artists and writers for ages. You may want to stroll the oceanfront promenade, visit the marina, or shop in the medina. This afternoon, discover the walled city of Asilah, a seaside city with a bohemian art presence. Historically, Asilah hosted many conquerors and pirates – and now it welcomes you. (B)

Day 10: Monday, March 9, 2026 Tangier - Chefchaouen - Fes Leave Tangier for Morocco's "Blue City" – Chefchaouen. Scenic mountains and brightly painted buildings signal your arrival. In your free time, explore the famous indigo-blue streets of this hilly city and take some time to have lunch on your own. Stop in its handicraft shops and find the wool garments and woven blankets that are unique to this region. This evening, arrive in Fes (UNESCO). The "Mecca of the West," Fes remains the region's religious capital. (B)

Day 11: Tuesday, March 10, 2026 Fes Explore Fes, one of the holiest cities in the world. Learn of its historical importance as a center of government, philosophy, medicine, and religion during your tour. See the Jewish quarter, the city ramparts, and the gates of the palace. Then, set out on a walking tour in the medina. Founded in the 9th century, it's home to the world's oldest continuously functioning university. Along the cobbled alleyways of this ancient market, find spices and colorful wares. Find out about the leather tanneries, a tradition dating back to the 11th century. View the honeycomb of vats exuding brilliant colors. Tonight, the food: a Moroccan dinner. The setting: a traditional riad. (B, D)

Day 12: Wednesday, March 11, 2026 Fes - Bin El Oudaine Prepare yourself for a long bus ride, and know it's worth it when you reach the awe-inspiring Middle Atlas Mountains, which are a jewel in

Morocco's crown – take in their majesty on today's journey to the small, rural hamlet of Bin El Oudaine. (B, D)

Day 13: Thursday, March 12, 2026 Bin El Oudaine Explore Bin El Oudaine and enjoy the picturesque landscapes of the area. Today, it's your choice! Explore the breathtaking rural lake landscape in a boat -OR- visit the UNESCO M'Goun Geopark Museum, which showcases the geopark's natural, cultural, and landscape treasures. No matter what you do, a natural and cultural wonderland is yours to experience. Enjoy a calm and relaxing afternoon. (B, D)

Day 14: Friday, March 13, 2026 Bin El Oudaine - Marrakech Travel to Marrakech, an imperial city full of ancient artistry and religious history. Stroll the Jardin Majorelle, one of the most stunning botanical gardens in Morocco. This evening, wander through a maze of colors and fragrances in Jemaa el-Fnaa – one of Morocco's famous squares – before sitting down for dinner at a local restaurant. (B, D)

Day 15: Saturday, March 14, 2026 Marrakech Start your morning visiting El Bahia Palace, with its marble floors and carved cedar ceilings. Then, with your local expert, explore Marrakesh's labyrinth-like medina and its local crafts. Spices, rose petals, babouches, and Berber rugs are in every corner, making this experience a highlight. Find out what made this souk one of the most famous in the world, as well as the centerpiece of so many novels and travel books. The rest of the day is yours to explore "the red city" of Marrakech at your own pace, or you may want to immerse yourself in the rich flavors and cultural heritage of Moroccan cuisine during a cooking demonstration. (B)

Day 16: Sunday, March 15, 2026 Marrakech - Casablanca Today, it's off to Casablanca, a romantic setting that showcases the modern side of Morocco in the best way. Tour the Hassan II Mosque, an architectural masterpiece of Moroccan artisanship.

Later, step inside, Rick's Café, the legendary saloon from the film Casablanca. Here's looking at you (and your fellow travelers), as you toast your adventure during a farewell dinner. (B, D)

Day 17: Monday, March 16, 2026 Casablanca - Tour Ends It's time to say "adios" and "besslama" to an incredible tour. But remember...you'll always have Spain and Morocco. (B)

Important Tour Information:

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 16 people (maximum of 24).

A 3-hour visit to the Alhambra in the morning and a 2-hour walking food tour in the evening may be considered the most demanding day on this tour.

Porterage is not available on the ferry from Spain to Morocco; you must be prepared to handle your own luggage.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Due to Rick's Café high demand and small place, the dinner can be replaced by lunch.

During your tour, you will have two Tour Managers. Your first Tour Manager will guide you through Spain and travel to Tangier, where you will say goodbye and meet your second Tour Manager, who will guide you through your travels in Morocco.

If you are traveling during Ramadan season - From February 17 to March 19, 2026 - please note that in Morocco, the order of some features will vary and that some experiences will be replaced (like meals in the hotel instead of local restaurants/venues). Some shops on the street may also be closed. Traveling during Ramadan also offers a unique chance to immerse yourself in local culture, witness spiritual traditions, bond with communities during iftars, explore diverse cuisine, enjoy quiet serenity, and experience hospitality and generosity from locals.

*Alhambra tickets are not guaranteed and subject to availability per Spanish Governing Authority. On the occasion that tickets are not available, you will visit another top Spanish attraction and your group leader or travel agent will be notified. Complete passport information is required 120 days prior to departure to book tickets to the Alhambra. If passport information is incomplete or inaccurate within 120 days prior to your tour departure, there is a strong possibility that we will be unable to confirm entrance tickets. You will be subject to any additional charges incurred from failing to provide passport information within the designated time frame.

Hotel check-in on your day of arrival is 3:00 p.m. Rooms may not be available prior to that time.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

Coaches on this tour are not lavatory equipped. In this case, frequent stops are made during travel periods.

To complete your tour, we include roundtrip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Please be advised many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.

Travel Requirements:

IDENTIFICATION

Optional 5 Days 3-Night Lisbon Pre Tour Extension

Per Person Rates: $1,599.00 USD double, $1,999.00 USD single, land only

4 Meals: 3 Breakfasts, 1 Dinner

Day 1: Overnight Flight

Your tour begins with an overnight flight to Lisbon, Portugal.

Day 2: Lisbon, Portugal

Welcome to Lisbon, Portugal's lively capital and largest city. Meet your local Tour Manager to get oriented with the area around your hotel and get the best tips to begin exploring the city. Later, gather with your fellow travelers to take the metro, explore the downtown area, and enjoy a welcome dinner. Today dinner will be included.

Day 3: Lisbon

See the city from a different perspective – via tuk tuk! With a local expert, discover some of Lisbon's most famous sights, like the vibrant Alfama district. Later, jump onto the tram and learn to navigate this widespread trolley system. Your Tour Manager takes you to Belem, where the famous Jeronimo's Monastery (UNESCO) is located. Make the most of an afternoon on your own. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 4: Lisbon - Obidos - Sintra - Lisbon

Today, discover a whole new region, exploring the picture-perfect city of Obidos, where white-washed houses sit snug within medieval walls. Then, set out for the enchanting town of Sintra, a UNESCO gem that once served as the summer haven of Portuguese royalty. Visit the mesmerizing Monserrate Palace, a masterpiece of Romanticism. As you journey back to Lisbon along the coastal route, seize the chance to savor the coastal views. Tonight, you may choose to join an optional tour to listen to local artists perform traditional fado music, a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage highlight. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 5: Lisbon - Extension Ends

Board your flight to Madrid and join your fellow travelers for your main tour through Spain and Morocco. Today breakfast will be included.

Important Tour Extension Information:

The overall activity level of this extension is a level 3. This means walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal for you. You can navigate hills and uneven ground, climb into various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.), and could possibly anticipate changes in elevation. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable as is climbing 3 flights of stairs. You can handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. You can expect some longer days balanced with free time. This level is not a fit for travelers that require mobility assistance devices.

Fully-guided extensions are a great way to explore a new destination. Enjoy sightseeing and local experiences led by a Tour Manager or local expert.

We reserve the right to cancel this extension if a minimum of 4 passengers is not met to operate.

Extensions are subject to availability and applicable charges at time of request.

Most underground stations do not feature escalators/elevators.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

Lisbon has intense traffic, so the best way to move around in the city is by Metro and other public transportation like the tram.

Air inclusive rate is valid for guests who have purchased our air package for the full tour, depending on the air schedule selected. Rate may vary for those who have purchased their own air.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

TRAVELERS NEEDING SPECIAL ASSISTANCE

You must report any disability requiring special attention to Collette at the time the reservation is made. *Collette will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the special needs of tour participants. Such participants, however, should be aware that the Americans with Disabilities Act is inapplicable outside of the United States and facilities outside the United States for disabled individuals are limited. It is strongly recommended that persons requiring assistance be accompanied by a companion who is capable of and totally responsible for providing the assistance. Neither Collette nor its personnel, nor its suppliers, may physically lift or assist clients into transportation vehicles. If a traveler thinks he or she might need assistance during a trip, he or she should call Collette to determine what assistance might reasonably be given. Collette cannot provide special individual assistance to tour members with special needs for walking, dining, or other routine activities. Internationally, a great deal of walking may be necessary to fully enjoy the destination. Travelers should be in good health and must be able to walk reasonable distances. In some areas, travelers may be required to walk on uneven ground, cobblestone streets or raised thresholds.

*To request a wheelchair accessible room on a cruise, the traveler or person sharing the room must have a recognized disability that alters a major life function and requires the use of a mobility device and the use of the accessible features provided in the wheelchair accessible stateroom. The cruise company may take appropriate action against someone who has reserved or purchased such a stateroom fraudulently. Action may include but is not limited to removal from the stateroom to a non-accessible accommodation up to denial of boarding.
