The Chicago World's Columbian Exposition was held in Chicago in the year 1893 to celebrate the 400th Anniversary of Christopher Columbus' arrival in the New World. This May marks the 132nd Anniversary of this momentous occasion in US History. The world turned its focus on Chicago and Chicago delivered. The city created a utopian city. The city delivered an experience never before seen and never replicated. Have you ever wished you could turn back the clock to 1893 and witness just a few of those wonders? On this program, we'll visit some of the original sites of the World's Fair fairgrounds, including where it was planned and elements of the fair still in use today.
