On some dates alternate hotels may be used.

Day 1: Monday, September 21, 2026 Santa Fe, New Mexico Delve into the spirit of America's Southwest, where striking desert landscapes are interwoven with the rich cultures and histories of Indigenous peoples. Arrive in New Mexico, the "Land of Enchantment," and begin your journey in Santa Fe — the multicultural state capital. With arrival times varying, there are no scheduled activities today. If time allows, you might acquaint yourself with this historically layered city, shaped by Indigenous, Spanish, Mexican, and other influences.

Day 2: Tuesday, September 22, 2026 Santa Fe Start your day with a locally guided walking tour of the Santa Fe Plaza area, the historic heart of the city and a lively gathering place for locals for over 400 years. As you meander through the plaza, stop at some of the city's landmark sites like the Santa Fe Indian Market, the Palace of the Governors, and Palace Avenue. Continue with a visit to the Loretto Chapel, a former Roman Catholic church turned wedding chapel and museum. Here, you'll find the "miraculous staircase," a structure with origins as legendary as its spiral shape. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure. Perhaps you'll visit some of the colorful art galleries and world-renowned museums sprinkled throughout the downtown area. Tonight, enjoy a welcome dinner with your fellow travelers at a local restaurant. (B, D)

Day 3: Wednesday, September 23, 2026 Santa Fe – Bandelier National Monument – Santa Fe Venture to Bandelier National Monument, a landscape of canyons and mesas that exists as part of a volcanic complex. It was in this sculpted landscape that Ancestral Puebloans lived between 1150 and 1550 CE, and today, the monument protects numerous cliff dwellings and village ruins. Explore this fascinating site your way because it's your choice! Hike into the Frijoles Canyon with a local guide -OR- walk along a paved path with a local guide for an up-close look at the cliff dwellings and ruins. Return to Santa Fe for lunch on your own before a free afternoon and evening in the city. Enjoy Santa Fe however you wish, soaking in the small-town feel of the oldest capital city in the United States. (B)

Day 4: Thursday, September 24, 2026 Santa Fe – Chinle, Arizona This morning, depart Santa Fe and make your way to the Sky City Cultural Center and the Acoma Pueblo — the oldest continuously inhabited settlement in North America. Perched atop a mesa, the village known as "Sky City" remains home to a vibrant community of Acoma people. Take a shuttle to the pueblo, where an Acoma community member will guide your tour. Wind through narrow streets lined with homes and ancient structures that tell the story of the Acoma Pueblo. Visit the Spanish mission church, the oldest surviving European church in New Mexico. At the Cultural Center, you'll have the chance to browse intricate Acoma pottery sold by artisans. After your visit, continue to Chinle for an evening on your own. (B)

Day 5: Friday, September 25, 2026 Chinle – Monument Valley, Arizona Wake up in Chinle, a town encompassed within Navajo Nation, the largest Native American reservation in the United States. Set off to explore Canyon de Chelly National Monument, where dramatic canyon walls and red sandstone cliffs frame a current-day community of Navajo families and the remains of ancient cliff dwellings. Embark on a guided Jeep tour led by a local Navajo guide, taking in the canyon that has been continuously inhabited for over 5,000 years as your guide shares Navajo history and stories. This afternoon, continue your journey through Navajo Nation as you make your way to Monument Valley, another beautiful desert landscape with deep cultural, spiritual, and historical importance. (B, L, D)

Later, head into Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park for a guided tour of one of the most photographed places on Earth. The site's natural wonder comes not from canyons, but from towering red rock formations that stand like giants above the vast desert, rising 400 to 1,000 feet above the valley floor. Take in this ancient, sacred land that is still inhabited today. End your day with a BBQ dinner set against a backdrop of red sandstone, as Navajo musicians fill the air with music. (B, D)

Day 7: Sunday, September 27, 2026 Monument Valley – Sedona, Arizona Bid farewell to Monument Valley as you journey south to Sedona. Before departing the Navajo Nation, stop at the small but fascinating Navajo Code Talkers Museum, which tells the story of the heroic Navajo soldiers who used their language to create an unbreakable code during World War II. Later in the day, arrive in Sedona, a vibrant city nestled among red rock formations. Full of restaurants and unique shops, the city is known for its outdoor recreation and striking scenery. Sedona is widely considered a place of spirituality and renewal. Settle in and enjoy a free evening, perhaps finding a spot to watch the sunset. (B)

Day 8: Monday, September 28, 2026 Sedona Make the most of a day at leisure in Sedona, maybe going for a hike, perusing one of the numerous art galleries, or visiting the sites that many consider to be energy vortexes. Or, join a local guide for an optional full day excursion to the South Rim of the Grand Canyon. Witness one of the natural wonders of the world, taking in the might and painted hues of those dramatic canyon walls as your sprinter van brings you to scenic viewpoints. Spend more time soaking in the breathtaking scenery as you sit down for a picnic lunch overlooking the canyon. After marveling at the canyon's grandeur, return to Sedona and explore the city's charm with an evening to yourself. (B)

Day 9: Tuesday, September 29, 2026 Sedona - Scottsdale, Arizona This morning, make your way south to Scottsdale, a city known for its thriving arts scene, upscale shopping, and desert scenery. Step into a symphony of cultures when you visit the Musical Instrument Museum, which showcases thousands of instruments from around the world. Discover the sounds and stories of global music traditions as you explore the galleries and interactive exhibits. Tonight, toast to your travel companions and the adventures you've shared at a farewell dinner. (B, D)

Day 10: Wednesday, September 30, 2026 Scottsdale – Tour Ends Say goodbye to the landscapes and cultures of New Mexico and Arizona as you depart for home. (B)

Experience It! Canyon de Chelly

Located within the Navajo Nation in northeastern Arizona, Canyon de Chelly National Monument is a place of both stunning natural beauty and deep cultural and historical significance. The canyon's towering red sandstone walls, rugged rock formations, and vibrant bursts of green vegetation paint a breathtaking desert picture on the Colorado Plateau. But this landscape's significance extends far beyond its scenic wonder. For over 5,000 years, Canyon de Chelly has been continuously inhabited by various peoples, including Ancestral Puebloans, Hopi, and the Diné (Navajo) people. The remains of ancient cliff dwellings offer a captivating glimpse into the far past, while the canyon continues to be home to Diné families who raise livestock and farm the land. This remarkable site is managed by both the National Park Service and the Navajo Nation, who work together to preserve and protect the park's resources.

Important Tour Information:

Book Now rates valid until Mar 21, 2026, valid on air inclusive packages only.

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with a maximum of 32 travelers on this tour.

This tour includes open air Jeep tours in Canyon de Chelly and Monument Valley where you will get into and out of a vehicle many times and travel over rough terrain.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Weather varies significantly from week to week in the desert and travelers should plan accordingly. From May into October travelers can experience temperatures at or above 100 degrees Fahrenheit/38 degrees Celsius. Heat and exposure in the desert is significant and not for every traveler. Cold weather in the desert surprises travelers. Cold weather with temperatures dropping below freezing is most likely in March, April, October, and November, especially at higher elevations in Sedona, and Santa Fe.

This tour includes traveling to high altitudes (7,200 feet/2,194 meters) and may not be suitable for all travelers. We suggest you consult your physician if you have any concerns.

This tour spends 1 night in the remote town of Chinle to enable easy access to Canyon de Chelly National Monument. Chinle is not a walkable town and there are limited services like restaurants and convenience stores.

We cover large distances through remote desert landscapes. The transfer between Santa Fe and Canyon de Chelly and the transfer between Monument Valley and Sedona are over 4 hours in length. There are enough towns to accommodate comfort stops along the way.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

Transfers will depart from Albuquerque airport for Santa Fe.

Transfers will depart from Scottsdale for Phoenix airport.

To complete your tour, we include round-trip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Air passengers will depart from Phoenix airport (PHX).

Air passengers will arrive at Albuquerque airport (ABQ).

Please be advised, many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.
