Stranded in a small airport terminal after all flights are cancelled due to a snowstorm with nothing but their devices, a few musical instruments and time on their hands, these strangers begin a conversation about their shared love of music and its intergenerational bond. By the end of their time together, they create what could have been one of the greatest concerts of all time had a few more flights been cancelled over the course of history. Featuring music made famous by Buddy Holly, John Denver, Patsy Cline, Otis Redding, Ricky Nelson and more, we learn why some music can stand the test of time.
